The Court, at the admission stage, made the following :

THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE K.C. BHANU

WRIT PETITION NO:9028 of 2005

ORDER:

The petitioner is working as a Driver in the respondent-Corporation. He was issued a charge memo on 30-01-1991 on the allegation of rash and negligent driving and after receiving the explanation of the petitioner, the final orders were passed on 05-08-1991 imposing the penalty of withholding of one incremental stage for a period of two years with cumulative effect. The petitioner questioned the order on the ground that though there is reduction of annual increment for a period of two years with cumulative effect is a major penalty, the 3rd respondent passed the impugned order without conducting any enquiry as required under the rules. Therefore, the order is illegal and it is liable to be set aside.

2. The learned Counsel for the petitioner relied on a judgment of the Supreme Court in Kulwant Singh Gill v. State of Punjab[1] wherein the Supreme Court held that since the punishment imposed on the petitioner is a major punishment, the order cannot be sustained without an enquiry. The petitioner therefore seeks to declare that the order is illegal and it is liable to be set aside.

3. The petitioner after receiving the adverse orders slept over the matter for a period of 15 years. There are latches on his part in asserting his right regarding this issue. Though the impugned order is not liable to be set aside, on account of long lapse of time in filing the writ petition and in view of the judgment of the Supreme Court in Kulwant Singh Gill (1 supra), I am of the view that it would be appropriate if the punishment imposed on the petitioner is treated as reduction of one annual increment for a period of two years without cumulative effect. The petitioner is not entitled for the difference of the amount, if any, by virtue of this order for the period from the date of the impugned order till the date of this order. But, he is entitled to get increments on notional calculation from the date of this order to which he is entitled, as he has been imposed penalty of reduction of one annual increment for a period of two years without cumulative effect.

4. The Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of with the above observations. There shall be no order as to costs.
